From the Private Secretary

Dear Geoffrey,

NHS AUDIT

As you know, Ministers have been considering, as part of the NHS review, arrangements for the external audit of the NHS. It has now been decided that the Audit Commission would be the appropriate body for this task. The Prime Minister would therefore be grateful if the Departments concerned could settle the detailed arrangements to put this into effect.

I am copying this letter to Alex Allan (HM Treasury), Carys Evans (Chief Secretary's Office), Alan Ring (Department of the Environment), Stephen Williams (Welsh Office), David Crawley (Scottish Office), Mike Maxwell (Northern Ireland Office) and Trevor Woolley (Cabinet Office).

Yan,
Pc

Paul Gray

Geoffrey Podger Esq
Department of Health.
