PRIME MINISTER

BILATERAL WITH THE CHANCELLOR: 9 NOVEMBER

There are no specific items that the Chancellor wishes to have on the agenda. But it may be useful for you to have a word about:

- (i) The lobby briefing episode;
- (ii) The economic prospect. The Chancellor is of course not aware of the content of your separate chats with Terry Burns and Peter Middleton. You will want to consider whether to press the Chancellor to have another "Treasury seminar" meeting before the end of the year (assuming we could find time in the diary).
